

I am not a cancer patient.

God's will for me is good, and pleasing, and perfect.

I am not afraid. I have the peace of God which surpasses all understanding and guards my heart and mind through Christ Jesus.

God is in control of this situation. He is bigger than cancer, and I am not afraid.

I have God's wisdom available to me, and I walk in it. The Lord is faithful to direct my steps, and I trust Him.

The Lord is my leader. I can follow His direction to get me where I need to be, when I need to be there.

God is with me. I can handle this assignment because He has leveled my way and never leaves my side.

I trust the Lord with my life and my health. I trust Him to keep His promises.

I am safe with the Lord by my side. He is mightier than this battle, and I trust Him.

The Lord leads with peace. I will not be shoved around by fear or the enemy.

I am a doer of the Word of God, and my faith has healed me.

God healed every disease and illness. God can heal cancer.

God has not changed His mind about me. He loves me and, by His stripes, I was healed.

I am doing a good work, and I can't come down.

I am not alone. The Lord is close beside me, protecting and comforting me, and when He is with me, I know I'm coming out the other side. I am going to be okay.

The Word of God is my weapon, and I trust it to win this fight for me.

I was healed on the cross. Sickness and disease have no place in my life because Jesus paid for me to be healed and whole.

I am healed and whole. Jesus paid the price for me through God's good plan. I am free from sickness and disease and refuse to accept what God set me free from.

The Lord is my refuge, a safe place for hashing out whatever my days bring. He is my God, and I trust him.

I am healed and whole, and I reject the threat of death on my life. Jesus is the Beginning and the End.

The Lord knows my future, and I trust Him with it. I will live to a ripe old age because God said so.

I am strong and courageous. God is with me and together we can finish the work of this temple correctly.

The Lord is with me and will never leave me. The Lord does not abandon His children. 1

My eyes are on Jesus who is calling me to Him. I am not afraid of the wind and the waves.

I will praise the Lord with all my heart. I am filled with joy because of Him. I will tell of the marvelous things He has done.

The Lord has judged in my favor. The cancer has staggered and died, in Jesus' name.

The enemy is finished, uprooted, and forgotten. I am free from cancer now and forever.

It is God's will for me to be healed.

I have everything I need in His grace. I am strong because of His power in my weakness.

The Lord is my stability, and I trust Him. I will not be consumed.

God sees me, loves me, and wants to be around me. He doesn't have to leave me to tend to someone else. He has infinite time for me.

The devil is a defeated foe. He fell from Heaven like lightning. I can defeat this weak enemy in my own life with the authority given to me in the Name of Jesus.

My name is registered in Heaven. I am an heir to the throne with Christ Jesus. Jesus' finished work on the cross was for me.

God's Word is life and healing to my whole body. I am healed and whole.

Healing is a simple thing to God. Defeating cancer is a simple thing to God.

Satan is a phony. Nothing is impossible when I fight and think like God.

God loves when I come to Him. He always welcomes me and is never too busy to talk.

Though I stumble, I will never fall. The Lord is holding me by the hand.

I am strong. God is on my side fighting for me, and I am strong.

I am healed. I believe the Word of God and will throw away any thought that doesn't align with it.

The Lord is my provider, and I have all that I need. I have no lack.

The Lord is my shepherd. I lack nothing, which includes healing. The Lord is a Good Shepherd who healed me.

I know my Shepherd's still small voice, and I follow it.
